CHANDLER BEATEN.

Judge Henry Burnham Nominated for Senator of New Hampshire by a Large Majority.

Judge Henry E. Burnham of Manchester was nominated in the Republican legislative caucus at Concord, N. H., last night, to succeed Senator William E. Chandler, whose term of service will expire March 3 next.

The nomination was made on the first ballot, which was as follows: Whole number of votes, 320; necessary for a choice, 161; Henry W. Blair, 1; Henry B. Quincy, 22; Cyrus Sulloway, 23; Henry M. Baker, 24; William E. Chandler, 47; Henry E. Burnham, 198.

Judge Burnham is 56 years old, a native of Dunbarton, a graduate of Dartmouth and has been a practicing lawyer for over 30 years. His title of judge comes from his position for a term of three years in the probate court.

He is a member of the present New Hampshire legislature.

Senator Chandler has served 14 years in the Senate and was secretary of the navy in the Arthur administration. He has been the dominant factor in New Hampshire politics for years and has been one of the most picturesque figures in Washington.

It is believed that another senatorial fight is imminent in New Hampshire and that Gen. Frank S. Streeter of Concord will be strongly supported as a candidate against Senator Gallagher whose term will expire in March, 1903.

Vermont Dairymen.

The meetings of the Vermont Dairymen's association have continued through three days in Burlington this week. A resolution was adopted Wednesday, approving the Groat oleomargarine bill and urging the Vermont senators to assist in its passage.

After Prof. J. L. Hills of Burlington had spoken on "Milk Making in the 20th Century" Wednesday, Senator Orville Bullard of Georgia offered $100 for a photograph of a cow which Prof. Hills claimed gave 3000 pounds of milk last year, further offering to wager $100 the claim was not true and $500 that no cow in America would give 2500 pounds of milk in a year.

The association elected U. A. Adams of Derby, president; F. L. Davis of North Pomfret, secretary; P. H. Strong of North Pomfret, treasurer; and Geo. Allen of Woodstock and Edward Gordon of Grand Isle, vice presidents. The officers constitute the executive committee.

Some of the leading prizes were: Gold medal and grand sweepstakes, Chas. A. Choate, West Barnet, 99 per cent; cheese sweepstakes, H. W. Rice, Westford, 98 1/2 per cent; best display of packages, Mrs. E. G. Miller, Ryegate.

Wednesday evening a banquet was held at the Van Ness House, covers being laid for 350.

Burglars and Dynamite.

Several burglaries have occurred recently in Chelsea and vicinity. This week the officers arrested Elmer McAllister and Wesley Underhill, two boys who are suspected of the crimes, and they are now in jail, having failed to furnish bonds for appearance at the county court. One of the boys told Deputy Sheriff Adams that a box containing 33 sticks of dynamite was concealed in the cellar of the High school building near the court house. On searching, the dynamite was found in the spot indicated by the boy.

Bianchi & Comolli's stone sheds in Barre were burned Wednesday, causing a loss of $2000.

W. H. H. Cram's wood working establishment was burned at Chester yesterday with contents. The loss is $1500 with no insurance.

The revolutionists are approaching Panama and it is feared they may bombard the city. Warships have been ordered there to protect the interests of the United States.

Five yesterday morning destroyed property valued at $500,000 in the Erie basin, Brooklyn, including shipping stores and an excursion steamer. One fireman was injured and 50 seamen narrowly escaped with their lives.

Frank G. Clarke, 50, Congressman from the Second New Hampshire district, died from quick consumption at his home in Peterboro Wednesday night. He broke down as the result of the strain of his platform work in the last campaign. He was a native of Wilton, was educated at Kimball Academy and Dartmouth college; he was admitted to the bar in 1876, was speaker of the New Hampshire House in 1891 and was elected to Congress in 1896.

Miss Kate Higgins is ill with pneumonia at Pine Heights. Her sister, Miss Nellie Higgins of Bellows Falls, is caring for her.
